Again the Race Wires Were Grounded at Gravesend.

FACTS ABOUT TOURNAMENT.

Jockey Bergen's Ovation-General Track Gossip.

The Western Union wires were grounded again yesterday. It is a significant fact that telegraphic communication is stopped just as the evening newspapers file their reports to t sent to the city. On Saturday the ground occurred at 4 o'clock. Yesterday it happened at 6.30 c'clock, or ten minutes nefore the public was released from the track. A morning paper charges that pool-room men tamper with the wires in order to remence the evening newspapers, and thus have them fight back at President Dwyer. The fact that the wires are cut off does not interfere with the evening papers, for there are several other telegraph stations within gunshet of the course; and there is no desire or effort on the part of those papers to antagoniz; Mr. Dwyer. The fight officially by both the President and Secretary he shridges the rights of the people that THE EVENING WORLD offers up its protest.

The great Tournament was beaten at Gravesend yesterday, and everyone turned to his neighbor and cried: "There! I always said he was a rank counterfest." in a month or so these same people will be exclaiming: "He's a great race horse." The fact of the matter is nat Tournament is not and never has shown himself in all his career to be a good norse in the Spring. His defeat yesterday counts for nothing. He was as disgracefully beaten last Spring, but his brilliant victories later in the on wiped out this score and stamped him se a great race-horse and a game one. He will that record this year, and the end of the on will find him on top of the heap.

Jockey Ed Poster is becoming a high roller. He went into the ring with $1,600 yesterday and get a bookmaker to lay it out against Tour-

One of the strangest harpenings that was ever seen or heard of yesterday was the ovaever seen of heard of yesterday was the ovation given to Jockey Martin Hergen. He was mappended by President Dwyer on Saturday for thadence, and yesterday went and apologized for his offense. hr. Dwyer forgave him, and Bergen took the mount on Disappointment.
When he came out on the track the grand sand not upants, with one accord, burst into a cheer and lades waved their handkerchiefs at the popular boy. When he returned Disappointment a winner by a orilliant piece of riding, the cheering was tremendous.

There is no truth in the report that there is o be a change of trainers in the McLewee table. The owners are perfectly entiated rith Matt Ailen.

Mike Dwyer bet $10,000 on Senorita yesterday to win $35,000. His brother Phil wanted to in-was $500 on the Prince and Mike laid him even moner.

The trainers and jockeys talked in scared whispers in the paddock, yesterday, about how spider Amerson had "thrown down" the siem and dignified Sage of Brockdale, Mr. D. D. Withers. The Spider was doing some accretional termine force in the paddock, and in one significant that the paddock, and in one significant that the paddock, and in one significant that the paddock, and in one significant with territo force in exactly the opposite direction from where he intended it to go. The refractory foot struck the understandings of Mr. Withers who never tumbled more quickly in his life. He sat plump down on the Spider's stomach, The Spider lost his wind and sat paralized until Mr. Withers ban et his hard head with an umbrells. Then he got up and apologized in a way that was very funny, Mr. Witners forgave the Spider, and the latter is thankfurthal he still retains his license.

John O'Nelli, an English racing man and owner of the great race horse The Rejected,

There is some talk of a match between Tenny and Longstreet for $1,000 a side and for $5,600 added money. Here's an easy chance for Mr. Pulatfer to pick up $6,000, and yet he is said to be averse to making the match.

Montague ran a trial of a mile and a quarter in 2.16%. His owner, Pittsburg Phil, supported sim on this trial, but the best he could do was to finish last, and the race was run in 2.11%.

E Chartes Welli. King Thomas is still a maiden. He has been second twice, once at Morts Park last Fall and once at the present Brooklyn meeting. In the latter instance he was the only starter outside of Kingston.

Although Mr. Owen is not making a contest for the Commissioners up of Immigration, it is thought here to be extremely likely that le will be appointed. He stands well at home, is a personal friend of the President and, through careful simily of the question, has become an authority on all points relating to the subject of immigration. The labor organizations desire the appointment of Mr. Owen, and the President lits thought, as a means of forwarding his campaign for renomination, will be at pains to comply with their wishes in the premises.
